

LIGHTING THE WAY
HISTORIC WOMEN OF THE SOUTHCOAST

EDUCATOR WORKSHOP

AMPLIFYING THE LIVES AND HISTORY OF LOCAL WOMEN

Thursday, June 24 & Friday, June 25, 2021 | 9 am – 4 pm

This is planned as an in-person workshop held at the Whaling Museum following all social distancing and other COVID Safety guidelines.

Join colleagues from across the region for a two-day educator workshop exploring the historical impact of women from diverse cultural and ethnic backgrounds who shaped their SouthCoast communities, the nation, and the world. Be inspired by Lighting the Way: Historic Women of the SouthCoast and the remarkable stories of women's callings that required grit, tenacity, and enduring commitment to their families, careers, and communities.

Designed for educators:

- From classroom, museum, library, and out-of-school program settings
- Working with youth 6th grade – young adult
- Interested in supporting activities in the humanities, social sciences, and arts

Educators will:

- Explore the Lighting the Way project, an online educational resource that amplifies history through profiles of women from the SouthCoast region.
- Learn from the work of researchers, educators, and librarians connected to the project.
- Experience a walking tour and museum tour connected to the history of local women.
- Collaborate with colleagues to explore how potential projects can be brought back to their home context.
- Receive extensive resource materials and a $100 stipend after the workshop.
